

THE DAYS OF ELIJAH
PREACHING THROUGH THE BIBLE: MALACHI
Malachi 4:5-6

I. INTRODUCTION

A. BRIEF DESCRIPTION

After the Remnant returned from Babylonian captivity, there was a brief period of repentance and reformation. But within three or four generations—less than a century—again the Jewish people had become hard-hearted and lapsed into their old ways of idolatry, mixed marriages with pagan mates, covetousness, and oppression of the poor and dispossessed. Malachi uses a question and answer format to address the situation, to pronounce God’s curse on this kind of behavior, and to speak prophetically about the coming of a new era whose fore-runner will be the new Elijah.

Shining like the sun at the trumpet call,
Lift your voice, it's the year of jubilee,
And out of Zion's hill salvation comes.
